CAMPING AND RV'S:

Camp sites are available to visitors to the pow wow for a fee of $25 in specially designated areas. Please pay camping fee when you pay your admission fee. Taos Pueblo tribal members, registered vendors, dancers, and drum groups are exempt. Taos Pueblo tribal members have established camp sites that are east of the arena.

Please be advised of the following:

- Camp areas are considered "primitive" with no electricity or sewage.
 - Camp fires are allowed only in fire rings and grills.
 - Please keep campsites out of designated roadways and the pow wow arena.
 - The Taos Pueblo Pow Wow Committee reserves the right to move campsites to ensure the safety of campers and ease congestion.
 - Parking monitors, tribal police, and security will monitor camping areas with frequency.
 - Pets are allowed in the campground area ONLY and must be kept on a leash.
 - Fireworks are prohibited by order of the Taos Pueblo WarChief's Office.
 - All campers are encouraged to leave their campsites clean. This includes the removal of all trash and any arbors made of brush before departure.
- Showers are available at High Altitude Fitness (Formerly known as Northside Health & Fitness Center) (575-751.1242), 1307 Paseo del Pueblo Sur (half a mile south of the pow wow grounds) for $8. Hours are Friday 5pm - 9pm; and Saturday and Sunday 8am - 8pm. - Bring your own towels!!

While we will do welcome RV's, we cannot supply hookups to electricity, water, and sewage. All RV's will be escorted to the designated RV parking area by a TPPW Traffic Monitor. The Traffic Monitor Supervisor has the right to move RV's out of certain areas to reduce congestion.
